CIVIL ENGINEERING

Civil Engineering is the profession of designing and executing structural works that serve the general public, such as dams, bridges, aqueducts, canals, highways, power plants, sewerage systems, and other infrastructure. The term was first used in the 18th century to distinguish the newly recognized profession from military engineering, until then preeminent. From earliest times, however, engineers have engaged in peaceful activities, and many of the civil engineering works of ancient and medieval times such as the Roman public baths, roads, bridges, and aqueducts; the Flemish canals; the Dutch sea defenses; the French Gothic cathedrals; and many other monuments reveal a history of inventive genius and persistent experimentation.

Civil Engineering is about shaping built and natural environment which we live in. How we protect ourselves from environment and how to protect the environment from us. If you choose to pursue a Civil Engineering degree, you'll discover the extent to which Civil Engineers shape, build, maintain and expand societies. Whether it's a bridge, space satellite, dam, road or tunnel, civil engineers are the people who design, construct and manage the entire process, from development to evaluation. Civil Engineering graduates are the brains behind all the largest and most essential structures that surround us and so their value within society is great.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The department of Civil Engineering was established in the year 2009. It offers a four year B.E. degree course in Civil Engineering. Since its inception, the Department maintains a team of dedicated and multifaceted faculty members, who are constantly pushing the frontiers of knowledge and quality education to ensure a futuristic approach that keeps pace with the changing trends in the professional world through our global perspective. The department also continues to maintain and cultivate its strong links with the infrastructural industry and academic and research institutions.

Message from chief Editor's Desk

Civil Engineering, which is the oldest branch of engineering has grown wide right from the stone age of civilization. In addition to giving people access to the necessities of life, such as food, clothing, and shelter, it also plays a crucial role in the operation of our global economy. Civil engineering is a professional engineering discipline that deals with the design, construction, and maintenance of the physical and naturally built environment, including public works such as roads, bridges, canals, dams, airports, sewage systems, pipelines, structural components of buildings, and railways. Civil engineers now have enormous responsibility to maintain and protect our environment due to the rapidly expanding urbanization and industrialization. Department of civil engineering have organized number of programs like seminars, workshops, poster presentation etc., and encourages students in all aspects to participate in number of technical, non-technical events and skill development programs like Coursera, NPTEL, and Learnathon, etc. This leads to enhance their responsibilities to develop infrastructure in an environmental friendly way. I am happy that Horizon is emerging the new form for the academic year 2021 - 2022. It provides a big stage to showcase all the achievements of both faculty and students.

CIVIL ENGINEERING AT HINDUSTHAN

We create next generation high quality, highly qualified and highly skilled engineering graduates who in turn become creators of a civilization. Since its inception in 2009, the Department maintains a team of dedicated and multifaceted faculty members, who are constantly pushing the frontiers of knowledge and quality education to ensure a futuristic approach that keeps pace with the changing trends in the professional world through our global perspective. We have invested in our building infrastructure, facilities and industry-standard equipment which enable the integration of engineering 'theory' and 'experiment'. The Department also continues to maintain and cultivate its strong links with the infrastructural industry, academic and research institutions.

VISION OF THE DEPARTMENT

To be recognized globally for pre-eminence in Civil Engineering education, research and service .

MISSION OF THE DEPARTMENT

- To impart scientific and technical knowledge for professional practice, advanced study and research in Civil Engineering.
- To equip the students with ingenious leadership and organizational skills for a successful professional career.
- To inculcate professional and ethical responsibilities related to industry, society and environment.
